Thursday May 25th 2017 Conference

At Oake Manor Golf Club, Taunton, Somerset TA4 1BA

Registration from 9am for 9.45am START. Finish 4pm.

With Dr. Gavin Reid and Dr. Jennie Guise

Dyslexia: Identifying and Dealing with the Barriers to Learning, Working Memory, Information Processing and Effective Learning Skills plus: Ideas and guidance for teachers and parents

This day course will provide practical guidance for teachers and parents on dealing with Dyslexia in the primary, secondary and further education colleges as well as tips for parents on some key factors relating to supporting the child with Dyslexia. The day will involve a blend of presentations, workshops and interactive practical activities.

Both speakers are well known for the quality and fun of their presentations! Both are experienced psychologists and between them have many years' experience teaching in schools, colleges and Universities and as consultants internationally. Dr Reid is also well known as the author of 32 books for teachers and parents, on learning, learning styles, motivation and dyslexia. Dr Jennie Guise has also worked in research, and now in applied practice as Director of Dysguise Ltd. Her main interests are in identifying what will help individual learners, and working collaboratively with teachers and tutors to use that knowledge in the classroom.

BOOKINGS are inclusive of tea/coffee, 2-course lunch, and parking
